

Proposals for a register of beneficial ownership in New Zealand

December 3, 2018

The proposals are driven by recent high-profile cases of alleged criminal wrongdoing involving the use of New Zealand-registered corporate entities (whether the proposals would have stopped such wrongdoing is another matter).

Henry Brandts-Giesen discusses the latest international developments in the latest edition of LawTalk.

Click here to read the full article.

Your Key Contacts

Henry Brandts-Giesen

Partner, Auckland

D +64 93 75 1109

M +64 21 532 770

henry.giesen@dentons.com