Overview

Letitia is a registered legal executive in our Wellington property team.

She is an Associate member of the New Zealand Institute of Legal Executives (NZILE). Letitia is also the Secretary of the NZILE Wellington and Central Districts Branch.

Letitia specialises in private client work such as residential sales and purchases, property refinancing, trust administration, estate administration, and estate planning including wills and enduring powers of attorney.

For the last 10 years, Letitia has undertaken specialist property work relating to the implementation of Treaty settlements, such as the issue and transfers of titles from the Crown to iwi and iwi entities; the creation and registration of a range of legal instruments such as conservation covenants, easements and licences provided for under special legislation.

She works with our Māori Business team on property acquisitions and transactions involving iwi post-settlement groups and a range of Māori collectives, including trusts. She also works with the Māori Business team on difficult property transactions involving Māori land.

Letitia has worked at Kensington Swan (now Dentons Kensington Swan) for over 10 years. She enjoys working with clients on a range of transactions, and takes great satisfaction in making matters as easy for her clients as she can.
